

References to the Yogyakarta Principles at the UPR

Albania

Recommendation: Include sexual orientation and gender identity specifically in anti-discrimination legislation, and consider using the Yogyakarta Principles on the Application of International Human Rights Law in relation to Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity (recommended by Spain)

Response: Albania did not accept or reject the recommendation during the WG session, or during the adoption of the report during the 13th session of the Human Rights Council